NOTE...I'd like to take just a moment to thank all who have shared this leg of my journey with me...line dancing. Throughout my three year trek as a choreographer (in my 7th decade) I have put together dances covering Absolute Beginner (this dance is #26 in my AB Series), Beginner, High Beginner/Improver, and Intermediate - totalling 67 overall. I am so blessed because dance is my passion.

My goal from day one was never to be the best, my goal was to inspire...maybe move just one person from the couch - in the comfort of their home - with no need for embarrassment, judgment, or time constraints. I've received comments from all over the world through texts and emails acknowledging some level of success, so for as long as possible I will continue to share my God-given talents. Thank you again for your support because my dancing feet are happy feet! Stay happy, well, and safe, God bless.
