Modified K-Step, ending with Right Foot Stomp Next to Left (with optional claps)

- 5, 6 Step your right foot backwards and to the right, like the lower right-hand diagonal of the "K." Touch left next to right while clapping once (clap is optional)
- 7, 8 Step your left foot forward and to the left as if returning to center of the "K" one last time. Stomp your right foot next to the left, with weight even on both feet in anticipation of restarting the dance with heel-toe-heel swivels to the right.

Restart - Happens on wall 10 (facing the 3:00 wall), just after 8 counts. The lyrics say "Don't get to do it again, Nah, Nah, Nah!"...you'll be swiveling your feet, heel-to-heel to the right & then to the left. Restart the dance, doing those same swivels/twists to the right & then left, a second time before proceeding with the rest of the dance.

False Ending

The dance slows down & comes to a freeze, before picking up again at about 2:22. Just keep dancing anyway during this part and it will continue to be on rhythm OR have your DJ cut the song completely at this point – up to you & your venue.
