This mambo should be danced with a bounce action & a lot of body movement. Use your hands to accentuate your movements and try a "Barrel Roll" on the "Diamond". The timing is tricky, but it enhances the body action and therefore the dance. While this track of music is not perfectly phrased, as the phrasing inconsistencies are only minor and do not effect the dance, we decided to dance straight through. You probably wont even notice the variations, and we believe that most dancers don't want "trivial or unnecessary bridges".
