Feel free to add your own 'rain' actions for a bit of fun - maybe holding a pretend broly when dancing Suzy Q's or holding hands out testing for rain in Lindy's

Suzy Q - based on the twisting style of Suzy Q in tap dancing

Splish scuff - a scuff or stomp danced as if splashing in puddles - has a circular feel to it as leg is carried outwards following the scuff
