The C pattern is meant to be very fun and optional on where you want to place your hands.

When you hear the music it says, "now you see it, now you don't!" So you can play around with it and show off what you want to on counts 1-2 and then cover up the part you are showing off on counts 3-4.

Have fun and left see how creative you can be.

Jordan and I hope you like it.

Guyton
