Order of walls/tag: This is how I explain it when I teach it to my friends

-1 x Wall (32 Counts)

-1 x Tag (16 Counts) *Audio cue is James Brown singing "So Good!"

-2 x Wall (32 Counts)

-1 x Tag (16 Counts)

-2 x Wall (32 Counts)

-1 x Tag (16 Counts)

-1.5 x Wall (32 Counts) (16 Count into restart) * This part of the song is the only instrumental area so that's the audio cue

Restart

*1 x Wall (32 Counts)

2 x Tag (16 Counts)

 The ending of the song is the tag repeating twice, the outro of the song is not choreographed so you can add extra spins, flair etc. I like to throw out some jazz hands for fun and a laugh when the horns blare at the end of the song.

Despite the tag portion, it's a very easy and fun dance to learn and share with your friends
