Bend right knee taking weight forward over right foot while lifting left foot behind the right
This move is an exaggerated lunge, although there is no forward foot movement, the body moves forward and the right leg is then used to push the body backward for the next step.

Rock step forward with right, step in place with left, step forward with right, hold

2&3-4 Left shuffle back (left, right, left), step forward onto right foot (4)

5 Step to the side on left foot making 1/4 turn left

(ronde') with the right toe to finish with feet in starting position.
