REPEAT

To accommodate bumping your partner's hips, clasp your hands behind your back or put your thumbs/hands in your pockets. Maintain eye contact as much as possible, and angle your shoulders for styling. A straight vine can be substituted for the rolling vine (counts 13-16). In either case, take small steps during the vine: you will be bumping hips over the same spot on the floor during counts 17-20 as you did during counts 5-8
