We hope you have as much fun learning and dancing this dance as we did while creating the dance. Backstory... I heard this song playing and thought it was pretty catchy. That evening - after work was over and the baby was asleep - I said "Gavin, we need to choreograph a dance to this song. Like right now. Stand up and dance to it for fun, let's see what sticks." Naturally, looking like fools dancing around in our living room and racking up the 'played' count on Youtube, an hour later we had the dance figured out and were in the process of writing it down. A core memory was made.
