REPEAT

The shoulder hitches and head jerks add to the fun of dancing this dance as if the dancer had risen from the dead (but with attitude and lots of rhythm)! So really get into a "Walking Dead" character and have fun! The following tag was taken from the Thriller video and added to help the dancers continue with their "Walking Dead" characters. However, the dance works great without the tags if the instructor would rather not teach them! This dance was created for fun and does not advocate the occult in any way, shape or form!

OPTIONAL 28 COUNT TAG

Choreographed by Michael Peters and Michael Jackson from the "Thriller" music video

After completing walls 4, 6, and 8. The last time through the tag will finish the music. However, you will be facing the wall opposite from the one you began with so do the quick turn to return to the original wall

These aren't like regular paddle steps which include a hitch step for an "&" count, these are jerky steps with the right foot and pivoting on the left. Avoid lifting the right foot too high. Keep it low to incorporate the jerky effect. As you make the turn both hands should be on your thighs. Keep shoulder distance stance between feet

SQUAT WALK FORWARD (3X) AND POP UP--WEIGHT ON LEFT

- 1 Staying in squat position with hands on thighs, lift left leg and step forward - keeping shoulder distance (or more) between feet
- 2 Lift right leg and step forward keeping shoulder distance (or more) between feet
- 3 Lift left leg and step forward keeping shoulder distance
- &4 Straighten legs looking sharply left(&) and then forward (weight on left for first 2 repeats)

On third repeat:

- 4 Lift right leg and step forward
 - 5 Pivot on left foot turning $\frac{1}{2}$ turn right and step down on right foot. You are now facing original wall. Stay in squat position
